

Local Information

Our nearest town is St Austell, where you can find a range of shops and most services including the White River Cinema www.wtwcinemas.co.uk The next major town (Cornwall's capital city in fact!) is Truro offering a good variety of independent artisan shops and markets www.enjoytruro.co.uk

How to get to St Austell

Join the A390 by turning left out of our drive and immediately right, over the bridge, signposted Nanphysick. Follow the bend round to the main road into St Austell (approx. 5 mins drive).

How to get to Truro

Turn left out of Bosinver's drive, through the village of Sticker and join the A390 main road at the other end (approx. 20 mins drive).

Train Stations

St Austell is the nearest railway station. Trains run east to Bodmin Parkway, Par (for Newquay), Lostwithiel, Bodmin Parkway, Liskeard (for Looe), Plymouth and beyond (Exeter, Bristol and London). Trains run west to Truro, Camborne, Hayle, St Erth (for St Ives) and Penzance. For train times see www.nationalrail.co.uk

Taxis

We recommend award-winning firm C&C taxis with their 100% electric fleet 01726 63538

Village Shop and Post Offices

The Village Shop and Post Office in Polgooth sells newspapers, groceries, lovely French bread, cakes and hot pasties and is open 8am-8pm Monday – Sunday. The Post Office within the shop is open 8am-5.30 pm Monday to Friday and 8am-12.30pm on Saturday. For the nearest post box to Bosinver, take the first left after leaving our drive go up to the Polgooth turning and there is a post box just after that turning. There is also a Post Office and shop at Sticker.
