

Local Pubs

Polgooth Inn, Polgooth

Our fantastic local pub, the Polgooth Inn (below) is just a 10-15 minute stroll from Bosinver. Head past Apple cottage along the lane into Polgooth Village and turn left along the road. Please note the unmade lane can get muddy after rain and you'll need a torch if returning after dark. (Alternatively our 100% electric local taxi firm C&C taxis 01726 63538 will be pleased to help you return home safely!) The pub was formerly a miners' counting house and has been an inn since the early 18th century. With a bar, family room and large garden the Polgooth Inn serves a variety of food to suit all tastes and runs occasional music events and quizzes. They also offer Friday and Saturday breakfasts from 7.30 to 10am. Location: Polgooth Village, St Austell PL26 7DA 01726 74089 www.polgoothinn.co.uk

St Austell Brewery Visitor Centre

Beer fans might also enjoy a visit to our local brewery with its bar and restaurant open Mon-Sat from 9am for breakfasts until last food orders at 4pm, offering an extensive menu of delicious pub grub and St Austell ales. You can also watch the bottling line in action and walk yourself around the small batch brewery for free or if you prefer, book a 90 minute guided tour (£12 per adult). Location: St Austell Brewery Visitor Centre 63 Trevarthian Rd St Austell PL25 4BY 01726 66022 www.staustellbreweryvisitorcentre.co.uk

Hewas Inn, Sticker

Just down the road from Bosinver, the Hewas Inn is a traditional Cornish pub serving good food with a warm welcome. Open fire and attractive beer garden. Location: Fore Street, Sticker, St Austell, PL26 7HB. 01726 73497 www.hewasinn.co.uk

Crown Inn, St Ewe

Visiting the gardens at Heligan? A short trip to St Ewe will take you to the Crown Inn, a homely cottage-style pub dating back to the 16th century which serves good food made on site from local ingredients. Location: St Ewe, St Austell, PL26 6EY. 01726 843322

The Rashleigh Arms, Charlestown

Award-winning pub in nearby Charlestown. The menu at the Rashleigh Arms is updated weekly to reflect the available seasonal produce. They also serve a core menu of pub classics and signature dishes. Popular Sunday Carvery (booking advisable). Location: Charlestown Road, Charlestown, PL25 3NJ. 01726 73635 www.rashleigharms.co.uk

The Kings Arms, Mevagissey

This small traditional inn is a charming, pared-back pub in the harbour town of Mevagissey. The owners Kris and Helen are passionate about serving good quality food at reasonable prices. The small but perfectly selected menu reflects the changing of the seasons and what turns up on the dock that day. Location: Fore St, Mevagissey PL26 6UQ 01726 843904 www.kingsarmsmeva.com

The Ship Inn, Fowey

One of the oldest pubs in Fowey. Built in 1570 by John Rashleigh, the infamous privateer, as his private residence, the pub retains much character and charm. Very good Sunday roasts. Location: Trafalgar Square, Fowey, PL23 1AZ. 01726 832230 www.shipinnfowey.com

Britannia Inn, Par

Friendly 16th century inn, 5 miles from the Eden Project. Excellent venue for watching live sport with 4 LCD screens. Good, home cooked food and a wide range of locally brewed ales available with guest ales throughout the year. Location: Tregrehan, Par, PL24 2SL. 01726 812889 www.britanniainn.com

Worth travelling further afield for:

The Pandora Inn, Mylor, Falmouth

Carefully restored after a devastating fire swept through the thatched roof in 2011, parts of the Pandora Inn date back to the 13th century. With its flagstone floors, low beamed ceilings and beautiful new thatch it certainly retains a lot of character. Look out for the postbox in the wall painted gold in honour of local Olympic Gold medal winning sailor Ben Ainslie. Floating pontoon for alfresco dining. Location: Restronguet Creek, Mylor Bridge, Falmouth, TR11 5ST. 01326 372678 www.pandorainn.com

The Ferryboat Inn, Helford Passage

This historic inn is a great place to have lunch while watching the boats on the river. First-rate food, including super steaks, local fish and seasonal produce, all cooked to order. Location: Helford Passage, Falmouth, TR11 5LB. 01326 250625 www.ferryboatcornwall.co.uk

Heron Inn, Malpas, Truro

As sister pub to our local Polgooth Inn, the Heron is situated on the Truro river at Malpas and offers stunning views across the estuary river to a heronry, the very best in quality pub food, real ales and hospitality. Trenhaile Terrace, Truro 01872 272773 www.staustellbrewery.co.uk/pub/truro/heron-inn

Rising Sun, Truro

Set on Mitchell Hill, a mediaeval route from the city of Truro in a quiet historical quarter, The Rising Sun is set amongst charming lanes with views to the Cathedral. It has won received numerous awards for food including Gold at the Cornwall Tourism Awards. Booking advisable for evening meals. 01872 240003 www.risingsuntruro.co.uk
